TESTIMONIES OF HEALING

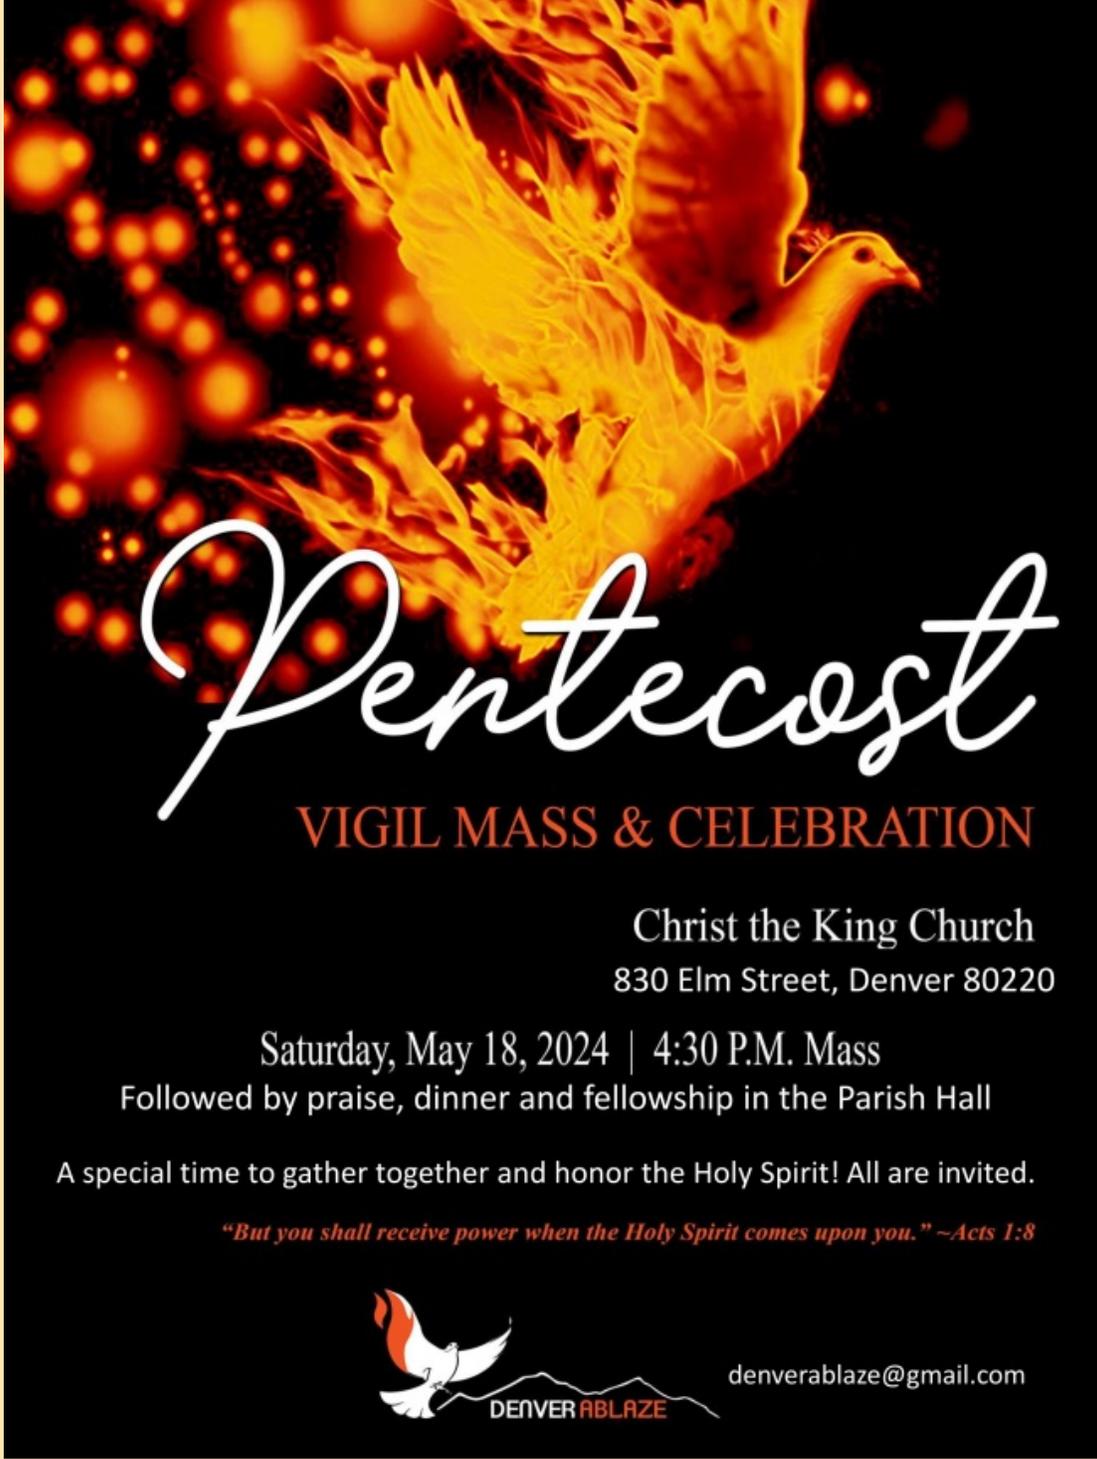

from First Friday Masses and Healing Services

- Daisy H. shared how her eyesight was very blurry. After prayer her eyesight was immediately clear. When we checked with her after 2 weeks, it was still clear. Hear her testimony by clicking link. Healing of the eyes testimonyIMG_5008.mov
- Rolando P. spoke about how he had diabetes. His fingers were becoming numb, and they were tingling. He was scared. After prayer the numbness and tingling immediately left. He had heard interiorly, "I love you, my son!" After prayer, someone came up to him and said, I am supposed to tell you that God loves you, which he took as a further confirmation of God's love.
- When we checked with him after 2 weeks, he indicated that the numbness and tingling were still gone. Plus, he says he has more energy, he is losing weight, and he is much happier. You can view the video taken that night of his testimony through the attached link. Healing of Diabetes video testimony.mov

NEW TESTIMONY...

- My name is Jordan, and I was at Christ the King in Denver, and we had just experienced the First Friday Healing Mass. Before I went up to get Anointing of the Sick, I had a horrible migraine. It was probably a 10. I was having trouble seeing and felt really sick. We were going to do something after the Mass, but I didn't think I could go. After going up to get anointing of the sick, the migraine was pretty much gone. It dropped to a 3 after I received the Anointing of the Sick. Praise God!!

We give Our Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit all the Glory!!!

The apostle of the Holy Spirit: the next saint for the Church

by CHARIS International | Apr 17, 2024 | Church

It is a joy for me to write about my friend, Blessed Elena Guerra! In 1991 when I was writing As By A New Pentecost, my husband told me about a fascinating woman who was named “the Apostle of the Holy Spirit” by Pope St. John XXIII. My husband referred me to an article entitled, “A Woman and the Pope” by Fr. Val Gaudet (New Covenant magazine, October 1973). Fr. Gaudet thought it was Elena’s teaching that influenced Pope St. John XXIII to pray his famous prayer: “Renew your wonders in this our day as by a New Pentecost.”

Blessed Elena’s life spanned from 1835 to 1914. She was foundress of a religious order in Lucca, Italy, at first called the Sisters of St. Zita and later renamed the Oblate Sisters of the Holy Spirit. In 1886 Blessed Elena began to be aware of her prophetic task, to write to the pope of her day, Pope Leo XIII, urging him to renew the Church through a return to the Holy Spirit. She wrote several confidential letters to the Holy Father between 1895 and 1903 calling for renewed preaching on the Holy Spirit, “who is the one who forms the saints.” The Oblate Sisters of the Holy Spirit say that the number of these letters is somewhere between ten and twelve.

Blessed Elena told Pope Leo XIII of her desire to see the whole Church unite in constant prayer, as were Mary and the apostles in the upper room, awaiting the coming of the Spirit.

“Oh, if only the invocation Veni! (Come)...would become as popular a prayer as the Ave (Hail Mary)!”

Her words are full of fire! Listen:

“Pentecost is not over. In fact, it is continually going on in every time and in every place, because the Holy Spirit desired to give himself to all men and all who want him can always receive him, so we do not have to envy the apostles and the first believers; we only have to dispose ourselves like them to receive him well, and He will come to us as he did to them. [...] The mystery of Pentecost is a permanent mystery. The Spirit continues to come to all souls who truly desire Him...if they only want Him...if they only invoke Him...if they only prepare a place for Him in their hearts... Who is hungry enough? Who is thirsty enough? Who is humble enough? Who is zealous enough?... It is necessary that we return to the Holy Spirit so that the Holy Spirit may return to us.”

Pope Leo XIII heard the Lord's call through Blessed Elena, and he responded to her first letter by publishing Provida Matris Caritate in 1895 in which he asked the entire Church to celebrate a solemn novena to the Holy Spirit (nine consecutive days of prayer) each year between the feasts of the Ascension and Pentecost. After her third letter, the Pope wrote the Encyclical Divinum Illud Munus in 1897, which also concerned the doctrine on the Holy Spirit. Blessed Elena was pleased with the Holy Father's efforts but disappointed with the bishops' poor response to the call for an annual novena. Following the ninth letter of Blessed Elena, in 1902, the Holy Father wrote a letter to the bishops, Ad Fovendum in Christiano Populo, reminding them of the obligation to make the novena annually.

Blessed Elena formed prayer groups which she called "Permanent Cenacles." She also used the term "Universal Cenacle", "Cenacle of Universal Prayer" or "New Cenacle." Often, she was heard to exclaim, "Let us go to the Cenacle!"

From her early years as an educator, she wrote many pamphlets and books urging people to return to the Holy Spirit. In 1880, she had even approached Don Bosco who was passing through Lucca. He encouraged her to continue her apostolate with the youth but also her activity as a writer and he said, "You have a pen of gold..."

That "pen of gold" was wielded to compose not only letters to the Pope but many beautiful prayers to the Holy Spirit. Elena used the invocation of Pope Leo XIII and wrote a Holy Spirit Chaplet that is used as a Pentecost Novena. It is a plea for each of the seven sanctifying gifts of the Spirit with a prayer that is repeated seven times for each gift: "Father, in the name of Jesus, send forth your Spirit and renew the world." It is followed by an invocation to Our Lady, "O Mary, who by the work of the Holy Spirit, conceived the Savior, pray for us." At the end of the Chaplet, there are three additional invocations to Our Lady and a Hail Mary. This prayer is still used today by the Oblate Sisters of the Holy Spirit, and I have had the privilege to pray it with them in Elena's bedroom in Lucca.

In her ninth letter to Pope Leo XIII, October 15, 1900, Elena begged the Pope to exhort all Catholics to pray for the new century and to place it under the sign of the Holy Spirit.

"Most Holy Father, I humbly present with confidence to your Holiness that the new century may begin with the hymn Veni Creator Spiritus to be sung at the beginning of the Mass of the first day of the year."

And on January 1, 1901, the first day of the first year in the twentieth century, Pope Leo intoned the hymn Veni Creator Spiritus ("Come Creator Spirit") in the name of the whole Church. On the same day, an event took place in Topeka, Kansas, that marked the beginning of a great revival in the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit destined to sweep throughout this country and around the world. That same hymn, Veni Creator Spiritus, was sung on the Duquesne Weekend when the Charismatic Renewal began. As they say, "The rest is history!"

I call Elena my friend because I really am in communion with her and her mission and I call on her every day. In some mysterious way, the Holy Spirit has used me to make her better known.

In 1998 a young Brazilian who was studying in Rome, read my book As By A New Pentecost. Although he had never heard of her, when he saw the name "Elena Guerra," there was a quickening in his spirit. Her name remained in his heart. He wrote to me three years later to tell me of his love for this Blessed and he and I became friends. He served for some time as Vice-Postulator of Elena's cause for canonization and has insisted I have a first-class relic of the Blessed which I cherish. There have been two approved healing miracles in Brazil through the intercession of Blessed Elena. Yes, the time is coming soon for her canonization. Let it be! Veni Creator Spiritus!

The Holy Spirit Chaplet by Blessed Elena Guerra

Praying together the Holy Spirit Chaplet in the 'Upper Room' with Mary!

We warmly invite you to join with us praying this novena between Ascension and Pentecost to prepare His Church to be renewed in The Holy Spirit!!!!

This prayer to the Holy Spirit originated with the exhortation of Pope Leo XIII. Indeed the same Pontiff in a Papal brief promulgated on May 5, 1895, exhorted all Catholics to devoutly make this Holy Spirit Novena. On this occasion, the Pope suggested a special formula of prayer: "Send forth Your Spirit and renew the face of the earth." He strongly recommended this to be prayed. With this in mind, in 1896, Blessed Elena Guerra, "The Holy Spirit Apostle of modern times," composed these invocations, to ask the Holy Spirit for the grace of a new Pentecost which renews the face of the earth.

– O God, come to my assistance. – O Lord, make haste to help me.

– Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen

In Each Mystery, ask for a gift of the Holy Spirit (then)
Repeat seven times on seven beads.

“Father in the name of Jesus, send forth Your Spirit and renew the world”

Conclude with

“O Mary, who by the work of the Holy Spirit, conceived the Saviour, pray for us.”

The Seven Mysteries invoking the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit

1- Come, O Spirit of Wisdom, detach us from earthly things and infuse in us a love and taste of heavenly things.

2- Come, O Spirit of Understanding, enlighten our minds with the light of Your eternal truth and the riches of holy thoughts.

3 – Come, O Spirit of Counsel, make us docile to Your inspirations and guide us in the way of salvation.

4- Come, O Spirit of Fortitude, and give us strength, constancy and victory in the battle against our spiritual enemies.

5- Come, O Spirit of Knowledge, be the Master of our souls and help us to put into practice Your teachings.

6- Come, O Spirit of Piety, come to live in our hearts to possess and sanctify all of our affections.

7- Come, O Spirit of the Fear of the Lord, reign over our wills and make us always disposed to suffer every evil rather than to sin.

O most pure Virgin Mary, by your Immaculate Conception you were constituted by the Holy Spirit a chosen tabernacle of Divinity. Pray for us.

May the Divine Paraclete come soon to renew the face of the earth. Hail Mary...

O most pure Virgin Mary, by the Mystery of the Incarnation you were constituted by the Holy Spirit true Mother of God. Pray for us.

May the Divine Paraclete come soon to renew the face of the earth. Hail Mary...

O most pure Virgin Mary, persevering in prayer with the Apostles in the Upper Room, you were abundantly inflamed by the Holy Spirit. Pray for us:

May the Divine Paraclete come soon to renew the face of the earth. Hail Mary...

Let us pray:

Send Your Spirit, Lord, and transform us interiorly with Your gifts. Create in us a new heart that we may please You and be conformed to Your will. We ask this through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

AN INVITATION TO DENVER AREA YOUNG ADULTS AGES 18-39

JOIN ONE OF OUR LOCAL BIBLE STUDIES

The Bible Studies offered with Catholic Sports are the primary way we exercise our core value of vulnerable intimacy. All growth in relationships, including spiritually with Christ, begins with an act of vulnerability.

CATHOLIC SPORTS... WHO WE ARE

Catholic Sports started in April of 2010. Prior to our launch, Paul Spotts, the Founder and President, had spent several years in campus ministry. After leaving campus life, he recognized the vast need for an authentic Catholic community for young adults. His ministry experience had taught him a couple key things that are core to Catholic Sports:

1. Authentic community is crucial to counter a culture of loneliness. Community at its core should be enjoyable, but true lasting joy is only found in Jesus. Thus, Christ must be the reason and underlying purpose for all sources of community, otherwise it will devolve into an anti-unity and become divisive.
2. Our core values are truly capable of transforming our lives and yours. We strive to operate with hospitable outreach, to follow Catholic orthodoxy, and to provide vulnerable intimacy. Ask one of our missionaries to share what our core values mean to them and how they live them out to learn more about our team!

OUR BIBLE STUDIES TAKE ON A FEW CORE IDEALS:

- ▶ Always remain open and inviting to new people
- ▶ Grow until we have to split into smaller groups
- ▶ Lead with co-leaders to make the split easy
- ▶ Always be vulnerable and real
- ▶ Frequently practice sharing testimonies with the group
- ▶ Single-gender, unless you're married/engaged
- ▶ Ideally meet in a house or apartment with the most privacy
- ▶ Materials should be accessible to any person to lead (pre-packed study books), and the content is not meant to require higher education
- ▶ Video content is not preferred, as it takes us away from being present to each other
- ▶ Always incorporate scripture, which "pierces like a two-edged sword"
