Denver Ablaze

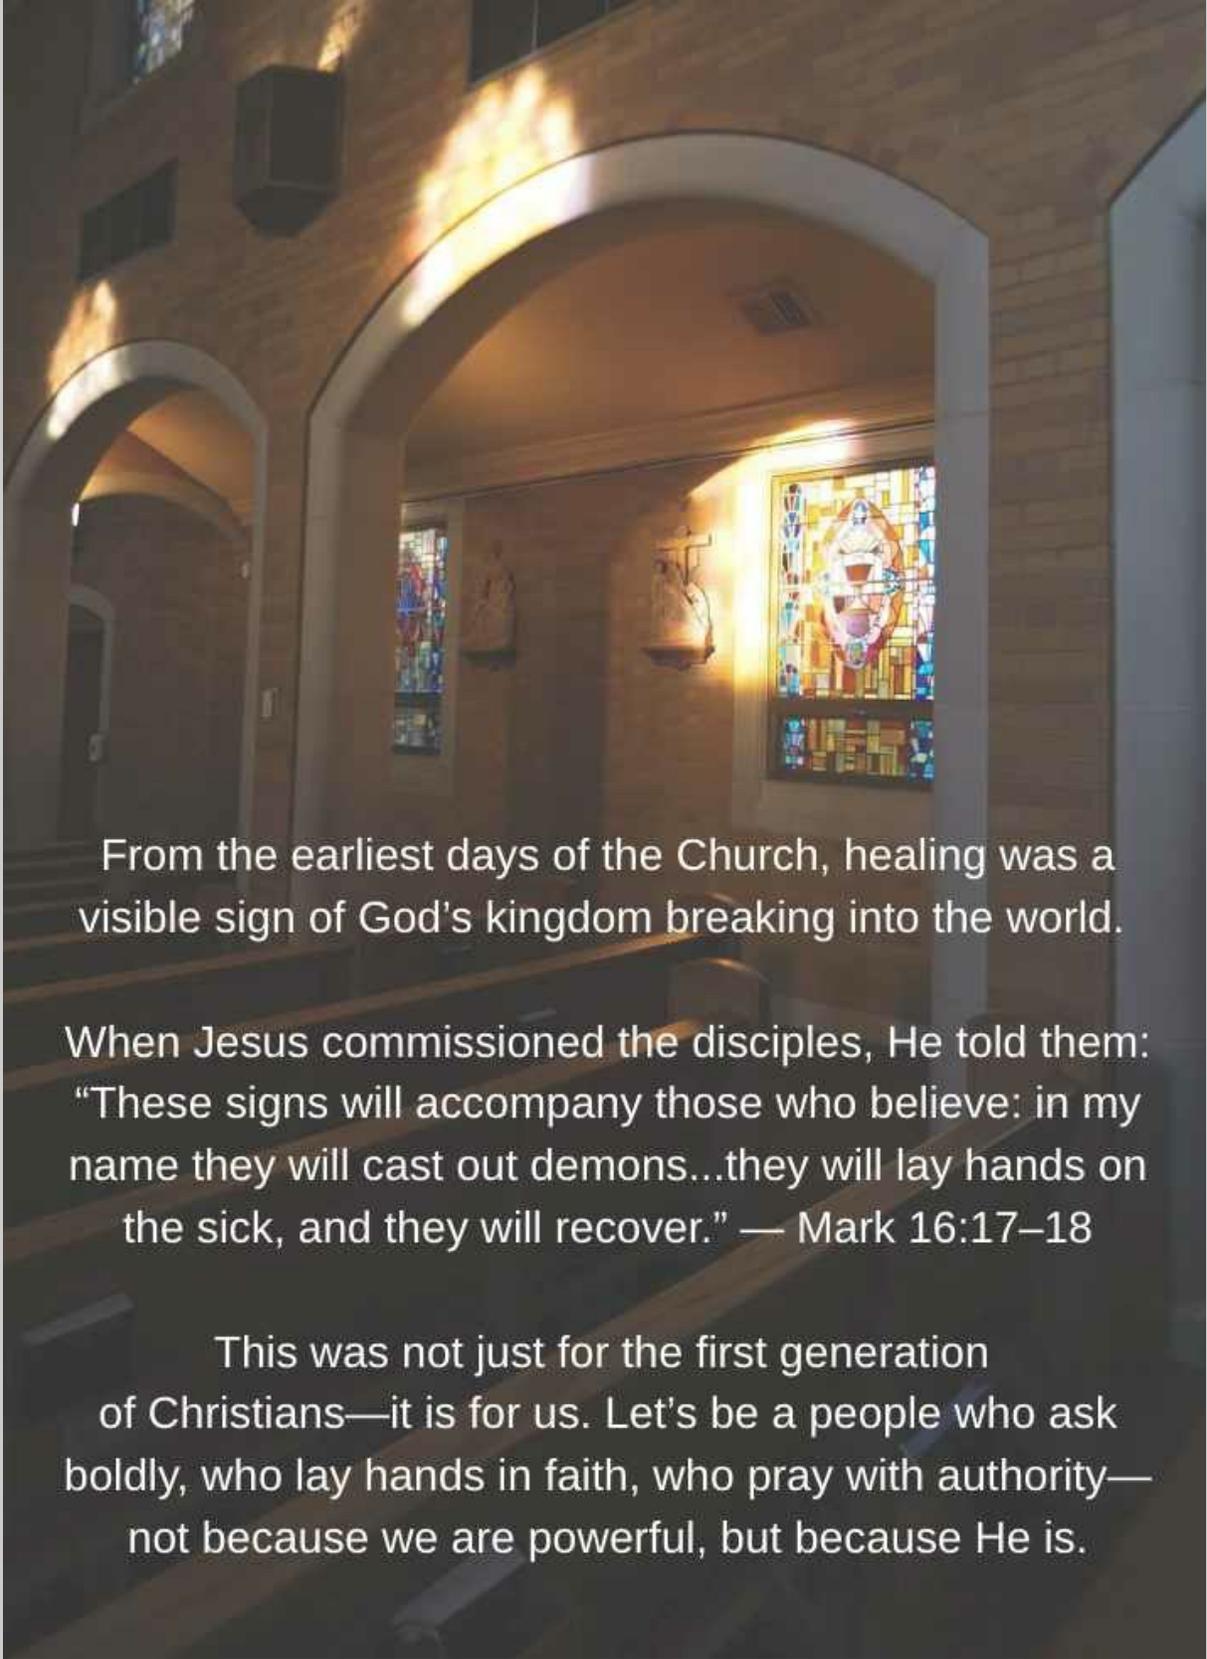

As Catholics, we live with the joyful awareness that Pentecost was not a one-time event. The same Holy Spirit who descended upon the apostles in the Upper Room is alive and active today, moving with power, love, and healing across Denver, the Church and the world.

At our April night of healing, we had the opportunity to worship together and pray as a congregation for physical healing. During the night we witnessed the Lord heal arm pain, headaches, back pain, mobility in hands, and more!

The Lord is on the move!

From the earliest days of the Church, healing was a visible sign of God's kingdom breaking into the world.

When Jesus commissioned the disciples, He told them: "These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons...they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover." — Mark 16:17–18

This was not just for the first generation of Christians—it is for us. Let's be a people who ask boldly, who lay hands in faith, who pray with authority—not because we are powerful, but because He is.
