"Removing the Primary Block to Healing"

By Barb Pietrafeso

Not only is Our Lady of Mount Carmel centrally located just West of I-25 and 38th Ave, but it is a church rich in history. This was St. Frances Cabrini's first parish when she came to Denver.

The talk will be followed by a Healing Service and Prayer Ministry conducted by our Prayer Teams.

ENCOUNTER

DENVER CAMPUS

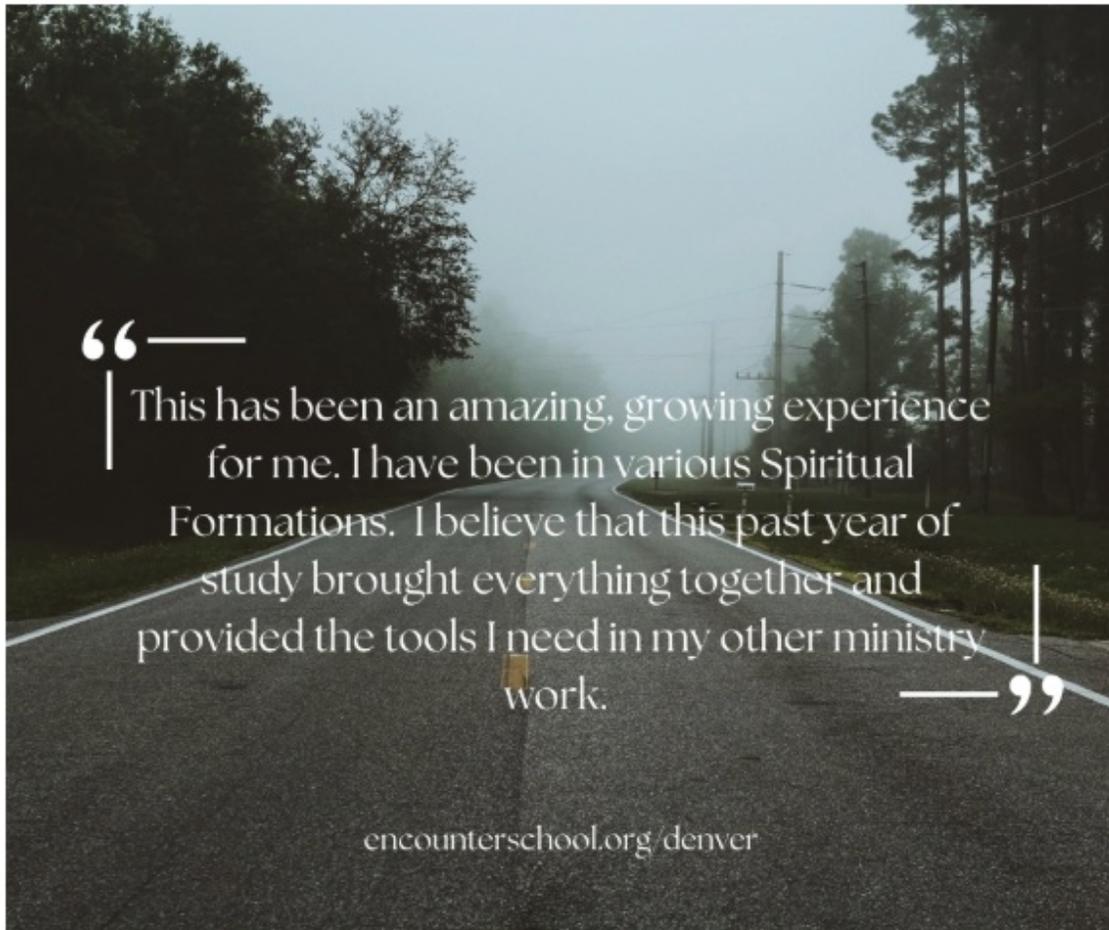

Wow, what a journey?!

This Is Your Final Invitation

For those who have been looking for something more—a way to bring all the pieces of their faith together—this is for you.

We believe that the Denver Encounter School of Ministry provides a one-of-a-kind experience. It's a place where your past spiritual journey becomes the foundation for powerful, future ministry. But don't just take our word for it. Here's a powerful testimony from a first-year student.

This student's story is a perfect example of what we get to witness every day at Encounter. We believe that God provides the tools and skills you need to activate your faith, perform mighty deeds, and live out your calling with the Holy Spirit.

This is your last chance to see what this looks like for yourself.

On Tuesday, September 30th, you are invited to join our last "Come & See" class. There is no waiting and no commitment—just a chance to jump in and experience our culture, content, and community alongside our registered students. This is the last time this school year that you can attend a full class without being registered.

If you have ever felt a call to go deeper, this is your sign.

Join us for our last Come & See class on Tuesday, September 30th.
