HEAR THE MOVING TESTIMONY OF VALERIE KUMMER

GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Originally from North Dakota, Valerie Kummer has called the Denver area home since 2019, following a call from the Holy Spirit. Valerie is a woman of many passions. Her greatest joy is her vocation as a mother which has been central to her spiritual growth, her relationship with the Holy Trinity and the Blessed Mother, teaching her to rely on the Lord for peace, patience and fortitude.

Valerie has served on missions in the United States and internationally in Brazil, Mexico and Belize. Through her work with Encounter Ministry, she has grown in the gifts of the Holy Spirit of prophecy, physical healing and deliverance.

Don't miss this chance to hear Valerie's testimony and more of her love and the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

The Father Desires Healing and Wholeness

This was the introduction to the article Archbishop Aquilla wrote in his column found in the October/November, 2025 issue of the Denver Catholic.

Throughout the Gospels, Jesus is clear: the Father desires to heal his children. He healed the blind and the lame, restored the leper to community, freed the possessed from oppression and even brought the dead back to life. Each of these miracles points to a truth we must never forget: God wants to heal you.

Too often, we carry the wounds of trauma, sin, disappointment or rejection as if they are ours to bear alone. We convince ourselves that we must fix ourselves, thinking with the culture that healing comes only through self-actualization, positive thinking or self-help techniques. While there can be natural goods in self-awareness and growth, the Christian vision of healing is deeper, more holistic and more transformative. Healing begins not with the self but with God. The Father longs to bring wholeness into our lives.
